

SEMI-WEEKLY INTERIOR JOURNAL.

VOL. XVII.

STANFORD, KY. TUESDAY, JULY 2, 1889.

NO. 41

LOVING W. GAINES.

The gentleman, whose handsome face and beautiful moustache are portrayed above, is the only man living who owns, edits and publishes three papers in two different States at one and the same time—the Todd County Progress, at Elkhorn, Ky., and the daily and weekly Progress, at Clarksville, Tenn. In addition to this he runs a real estate agency, several other enterprises and still finds time to spend a few evening each week with the ladies, who dote on his winning ways and that "love of a moustache."

Reared a farmer boy in Warren county, Mr. Gaines graduated at Ogden College, Bowling Green, while still in his teens and for several years was quite a successful pedagogue. But he longed for the desh-pots of journalism and obtaining a situation as local editor of the Bowling Green Pantagraph, he launched forth into the profession he has since very creditably sustained. He was afterwards successively local editor of the Daily Times, Gazette and Democrat, of Bowling Green, in the latter of which he held a half ownership. The Sunday Herald, of the same city, was founded and conducted by him till 1886, when he bought the Todd county Progress, which he is still running. In October last he established the Clarksville Daily Progress, the first daily in that city. It stepped immediately into public favor and has since grown in popularity and prosperity. Mr. Gaines is a whole-souled, genial gentleman, as Loving of disposition as of name, and is impatiently awaiting the right one to make her his wife. Young ladies, now's your chance, but don't all speak at once.

PIE.—The offices at the disposal of Collector Burnham are as follows: A chief deputy, salary $1,800 per annum; two deputies, salaries $1,200; three clerks with salaries of $1,200, $1,000 and $800 respectively. It is rumored that the office of Cashier, salary of $2,000, will be introduced here. There were formerly seven, but now only five division deputies with salaries of $700 each, and $485 for traveling expenses. There are three stamp deputies: one at Lancaster, salary of $600; one at Danville, salary of $400; one at Harrodsburg, salary of $300. There are on an average in this district 60 storekeeper-gaugers, 8 gaugers, 20 storekeepers and 6 brandy gaugers, also 3 general storekeeper-gaugers whose salaries are $4 a day. There may be some mistakes in the above figures, but not such as will materially lessen the flavor of the plumb. The salary of the Collector is $4,500 per annum, with $500 extra for house rent and $100 for fuel. Collector Bronston reports the collections in this district for the past fiscal year at $1,100,000.—Richmond Register.

The prohibitionists are placing the blame for their recent defeat in Pennsylvania upon the republican party, but politics had nothing whatever to do with the result. Nor, on the other hand, can it be called a rum victory. It was simply a victory of practical common sense against the delusions of the temperance cranks, who insist upon drawing the line at total abstinence instead of sobriety.

It is, as stated by the Philadelphia Times, "a victory achieved by the conservative temperance element of the State, and it means that severe law shall regulate a traffic that is capable of great wrongs to society and that there shall be no lawlessness either invited or tolerated in it. It leaves the whole issue, from high license even to absolute prohibition open for consideration in our legislative halls, and there will be constant pressure for advancement in every line that promises the promotion of public sobriety. Prohibition is beaten, temperance is not, and it is now safe to say that it never can be beaten in Pennsylvania."

"No heroism can attach to the man who kills one of his fellow beings. Even when done in self defense it is a sad and lamentable affair. There is nothing to exult over in the killing of a man, and for murder no punishment fits the crime short of hanging. A rigid enforcement of law is the only safeguard of a Government,"—Paducan Standard.

There is no use trying to disguise the fact that this year's summer girl is the most charming creature the world has ever known. She is all that the poets have said and a great deal more.—Baltimore American.

Bro. Ballou Blows His Bazoos.

(To the Editor Interior Journal.)

Lest things become monotonous and look one sided in the pending campaign in our county, I will ask you to be so generous as to allow both sides an occasional hearing before your readers.

Whether the liquor question is a National question and a proper subject of political legislation and jurisprudence, or merely a matter of morals, unsuitable to mix in politics, one thing is manifest to the intelligent reader of to-day: No other question has received so much attention, thought and discussion at the hands of political papers in this country since the war. This agitation, going on from the Atlantic to the Pacific, and from the Gulf to Canada, has developed some curious things.

We prohibitionists contended during the last National campaign that there was no real difference between the two old parties, except that of in and out, and the consequent spoils. I am ready to prove the charge before any competent court.

Both parties have feigned great friendship toward the "dear people in their struggle against the monopolist trusts. But neither come in gun-shot of doing anything. Both parties are well represented at the head of the various trusts. Both parties need money, therefore, &c.

On the liquor question, the democratic party in National conventions, has championed (personal liberty) the saloon interest; while the republicans drank their beer and their whisky and in their hypocritical pretense at favoring prohibition, cast the empty casks of "morality and temperance" to a bamboozled constituency.

Some recent sayings in our beloved INTERIOR JOURNAL are almost as temperate and moral as a republican resolution. We have observed ever since prohibition was "snowed under" in Massachusetts and Pennsylvania that these events have served as convenient safety-valves for the Commercial-Gazette and the INTERIOR JOURNAL. This is all encouraging!

'When northern republican and southern democratic journals can drink a toast through the same quill, touching the same issue on the only live national question of the day, it certainly bodes an early burial of the tomahawk with these parties. But just before you and the Commercial go to preach the funeral of prohibition in Massachusetts, let me admonish you to stand at the head of the grave. You might get kicked.

As your readers have never had all the figures pertaining to that election—the Massachusetts defeat, allow me to give them. The total vote of the State was 222,000. Of this 88,000 voted for prohibition. In other words, the prohibition vote in that State in April, 1889, was ten times as large as it was in November, 1888. Is that going back? Of a voting population of 344,448 in the State, lacking 33,000 of a majority, 122,000 not voting. In the Pennsylvania election on the 18th inst, only 252,000 voted according to your report. Yet this State had, according to the census of 1880, 808,802 votes. So it appears that prohibition was "snowed under" in Pennsylvania by less than a fourth of the votes voting against the amendment.

All this after a hot contest in which one party was absolutely lead and bossed by the liquor interest, with money by the bushel, whisky and lies by the thousand supplied by a subsidized press. Almost the entire press of both the democratic and republican parties opposed the amendment in both the States referred to. Another token of the approaching millennium, when the rooster and the coon shall lie down together and root together and a saloon-keeper shall lead them and feed them.

Now, Mr. Editor, a question on home affairs. The INTERIOR JOURNAL says that Mr. Warren proposes to restore to the people the right of self government which the prohibition law takes from them. That is certainly more generous. It is patriotic! I know you always favor the enlightenment of the people, and knowing you to be expert in matters pertaining to law (especially prohibitory law) I am encouraged to ask you to answer a question or two.

1. Is it not true that the law of this State punishing murder, theft, arson, Sabbath-breaking, etc., takes from the people the right of self government just as much, and just the same as the prohibitory law of Lincoln county does?

2. If said prohibitory law is anti-democratic, is not all law punishing crimes and misdemeanors also anti-democratic?

If not, why not? Please show the distinction if it exists. The man who thinks that a prohibitory law is by its advocates designed or expected to "legislate individuals into temperance," does not know the alphabet of the subject he attempts to write about. Respectfully,

JOS. BALLOU.

The people passed the law, the prohibitory, by a popular vote. Was the law against murder or larceny passed in the same way? These laws directed against mala in se were passed of course by the legislature and may at any time be amended or repealed by the same authority. The prohibition law, however, was passed by popular vote and while provision was made for re-submission in case of its defeat, none was made for such re-submission in case it was adopted and the people afterward saw fit to change their minds. It was in fact a very shabby trick on the part of the "I am holier than thou" party. What would Bro. Ballou have thought of this law if it had provided submission to the people of free bar-rooms forever in Lincoln county, if the majority favored, and further that if the bar-room lost at the first election it should be re-submitted every two years, but on the other hand if the bar-room carried the day then that should be a settlement of the question for all time and a finality? Would not Bro. B. have thought this emphatically a law which robbed, or attempted to rob, the people of the right of self-government? We answer for him, in the cant of the convenience, yea, verily!

The prohibitory law in itself is not undemocratic, only in so far as it gives one side of the right to vote more than once on the proposition and takes it from the other. If a majority want prohibition it is all right; if they do not and the question is determinable by a popular vote as it was in this case, then they should have the power to say so. So far as we are personally concerned we do not care whether the law is ever submitted again or not. We only contend that the people shall have the right, if they desire, to vote or not vote on it, as they see proper.

SAM M. OWENS.

In support of his claim for endorsement as jailer of Lincoln county, Mr. Owens refers with pride to his management of the office as attested by the physician and the repairer of the property, whose letters are herewith given. It is usual to endorse an officer by re-election and when that officer has filled his trust so excellently as Mr. Owens has, he has a right to ask that no exception be made in his case. Here are the letters:

Having been jail physician much of the time since Mr. S. M. Owens has been jailer, and it being my duty to note particularly the sanitary condition of the jail and surroundings, it is a pleasure to me to state that he has attended to all the duties incumbent upon him as jailer in a most excellent manner.

G. W. BRONNAUGH.

During the past ten years I have frequently been called upon to repair the cells and cots of our county jail, and it gives me pleasure to state that during the time that Mr. Sam M. Owens has been jailer, I have found on every visit the jail in a nice clean condition, an entire absence of that offensive smell peculiar to badly kept prisons. Everything about the premises has a neat, tidy appearance.

WM. DAUGHERTY.

DANVILLE.—Mr. A. G. Whitley has retired from the Model Grocery and is succeeded by Mr. W. H. Harris. M. G. and John G. Weisiger sold 1,500 bushels of old wheat to C. C. Vanarsdall, of Hustonville at 85c. John Cowan sold his growing crop of wheat for 85c last fall. Our local buyers are offering only 70c. Woodcock & Owens sold this week in Cincinnati, two carloads of lambs at 6½ cents. Fox & Wood bought of Crowder & Knox, of the West End 100 hogs averaging 260 pounds at 3½ cents. Wakefield, Moreland & Lee shipped to Chicago 28 carloads of slopped cattle from Tyrone, and 12 car-loads to New York City. The Chicago shipment was sold this week at 3½c. Those in New York have not been said yet.—Danville Advocate.

All this after a hot contest in which one party was absolutely lead and bossed by the liquor interest, with money by the bushel, whisky and lies by the thousand supplied by a subsidized press. Almost the entire press of both the democratic and republican parties opposed the amendment in both the States referred to. Another token of the approaching millennium, when the rooster and the coon shall lie down together and root together and a saloon-keeper shall lead them and feed them.

A JUDGE'S COURTSIDE.—The shortest courtship I ever heard of was that of an eminent jurist. He was on his way to hold court in a town when he met a young woman returning from market.

"How deep is the creek and what did you get for your butter?" asked the judge.

"Up to the knee and ninepence," was the answer, as the girl walked on. The judge pondered over the sensible brevity of the reply, turned his horse, rode back and overtook her.

"I liked your answer just now," he said, "and I like you. I think you would make a good wife. Will you marry me?" She looked him over and said: "Yes."

"Then get up behind me and we'll go to town and get married."

She did get up behind and they rode to the court-house and were made one. It is recorded that the marriage was a pre-eminently happy one.—New York Press.

An exchange asks if a man of 35 marries a girl of 5, he is 7 times older than his wife. They live together 5 years, he is then 40 and she 10; he is only 4 times older. They live together another 20 years, he is then 60 and she is 30; he is then only twice as old as his wife. How long must they live together till both become the same age?

You Cannot Afford

At this season of the year to be without a good reliable diarrhoeal balsam in the house, as cramps, diarrhoea and all inflammation of the stomach and bowels are exceedingly dangerous if not attended to at once. One bottle of Beggs' Diarrhoea Balsam will do more good in cases of the kind than any other medicine on earth. We guarantee it. A. R. Penny, Druggist.

The I. J. Man on His Rounds.

Waynesburg does not "git up and git" as some of the Western towns do, but the quiet little village holds her own remarkably well. The Goodees, the monied men of the section, do the mercantile portion of the business, while the Reynolds, Singletons and Caldwells hold down the farming and lumber interests. I mention those four family names because with one or two exceptions they do the business of that section as well as represent three-fourths of the populace of that neighborhood. The Goodees are the most numerous, while the Singletons hold a good second. To show how numerous they are, in a crowd of 11 I happened to be with I found out that seven were of the former name and four of the latter. They are good people, all of them, and save the illiberal views of some of them on the prohibition or third party question, they would be as faultless a set as one would wish to see.

I spent Friday night with my good old friend Clark Reynolds, and felt as I always do, at home, under his humble but welcome roof. Messrs. Warren, George Carpenter and Sam Owens held Mr. Reynolds' household in the same esteem. I do and there rested for the night after a hard day of speaking and canvassing. "Clark," as everybody knows him, has not a very commodious house and no doubt was a wee bit crowded, but with a heart as big as any man possesses, he insisted that he could and would entertain every democrat that came in his midst and that if any of us failed to come to see him when in his vicinity, "woe be unto him." His good wife, a cynicist of high art, set as good a supper and breakfast as mortal man could wish and at night stored us between snow white sheets and upon such feather beds as the average hotel knows not of. It was a most pleasant night to us all and with one accord we say long live the good host for his many deeds of kindness.

Kingsville has done herself proud since my stop there in November last. Several handsome dwellings have been erected and the place seems to have taken a fresh start all around. A religious feeling seems to pervade since the recent protracted meeting and the attention of the people has been turned to repairing one church and building another. The business of the town, I was told, is gradually on the increase and the citizens are determined to make Kingsville something better than an ordinary way station. The enterprising merchant, Mr. W. L. McCarty, is foremost in the numerous improvements and great credit is due him. He is a wide-awake man and it can be truly said that "no grass grows under his feet." Mr. J. H. Watts one of the cleverest of Kingsville's citizens, has moved to Tennessee with his saw-mill and store to be absent a year or more and saving this nothing at all can be said but what "Tunnel City" is on a general improve.

Friday evening the legislative candidates spoke at Waynesburg to an audience of 80 or 90. Mr. Warren, the democratic nominee, made a most excellent and telling speech and represented the democratic cause to the satisfaction of the "true blues" and on the other side to the heartfelt dissatisfaction of the cold-watertypes. Eld. Montgomery also acquitted himself creditably, but the liberal views of Mr. Warren more than counteracted Bro. Montgomery's appeal and even an illiberal view of the situation would make a man with a spark of democracy in his veins, conclude that the good people of that portion of the county will not as a unit, as a number of the prohibitionists claim to think, leave the grand old party, but will rally on the first Monday in August and give Dick Warren a hearty and liberal support, thus helping to redeem the grand old county of Lincoln. The gentlemen also spoke on Saturday evening at Kingsville, with the result about the same as Waynesburg and an audience alike in number.

E. C. W.

In order to protect New South Wales from the plague of rabbits in South Australia, a rabbit-proof fence 350 miles long and costing $125,000 is to be built by the government.

Eggs and chickens are too valuable to be allowed to go to waste when Ganter's chicken cholera cure is sold and warranted by McRoberts & Stagg.

Thunder storms have never been so frequent in Paris as since the Eiffel Tower has been there, and it is becoming recognized as the cause.

Next to hearing that she is pretty herself, a woman likes best to be told how homely some other woman is.—Somerville Journal.

Grit makes the man and want of it the chump; the men who win lay hold, hang on and bump.

The Pride of Woman.

A clear pearly and transparent skin is always a sign of pure blood, and all persons troubled with dark, greasy, yellowish and skin can rest assured that their blood is out of order. A few doses of Beggs' Blood Purifier & Blood Maker will remove the cause and the skin will become clear and transparent. Try it, and if satisfaction is not given it will cost you nothing. It is fully warranted. A. R. Penny, Druggist.

SUMMER GOODS

--AT--

T. R. WALTON'S.

White Mountain Cream Freezers.

Extracts for Ice Cream, &c.

MASON'S WIRE-TOP FRUIT JARS

Sealing Wax and Jar Gums.

Scythes, Snaths and Whet Stones.

Regular stock embraces

Groceries, Provisions, Hardware, Tinware, Glassware, Queensware, Confections, Cigars, Tobacco.

T. R. WALTON,

Main and Somerset Streets.

J. P. Burton, Clerk.

HARRY A. EVANS, ANALYTICAL CHEMIST,

STANFORD, KY.

Engineering and Surveying in all branches.

FOR SALE.

My New House on Main St.,

Stanford, Ky. For terms apply to Mr. W. H. Higgins, Stanford, or to me at Danville, Ky.

LOTTIE N. HOMMES.

C. A. BENEDICT & CO., Well Drillers & Pump Adjusters,

STANFORD, KY.

Wells drilled to order and Pumps furnished at factory prices.

30

H. B. WILSON,

With—

THOMPSON & BOYD,

Manufacturers of Fine Saddles and Harness, in every style and finish known to the trade. Race and Trotting Experiments a specialty.

SEMI-WEEKLY INTERIOR JOURNAL

STANFORD, KY., JULY 2, 1889

W. P. WALTON.

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

For State Treasurer,
STEPHEN G. SHARPE.

For Representative, Lincoln County,
RICHARD C. WARREN.

The Somerset Reporter does not know whereof it affirms and should not therefore shoot off its mouth. This paper never has and never will denounce temperance and temperance people, because it is for it and them all the time. But we are unalterably opposed to the over-righteous individuals who style themselves the prohibition party and we propose to fight them as we would the republican party, so long as they occupy the attitude they do. We acknowledge that the prohibition law has done some good and for ourselves we are not opposed to it remaining as it is, at the same time we are for the time honored principle of local self-government and are willing that the law shall be amended so as to restore to the people the right that it takes from them. Those who know us know that we are a temperance man both in theory and in practice, but we are a democrat and regard it as our bounden duty to fight any or all parties who join issue with it. Does our astute critic comprehend the difference? If not we shall endeavor to make our position so clear that a wayfaring man although a fool cannot err therein.

In the interest of right and justice we insist that it is time that Mr. E. R. Blaine, who has just been appointed chief clerk by Collector Goodloe at Lexington, was promoted. He held the position under Col. Swope and Gen. Robinson found that no democrat in his district was capable of filling the office as well as he, consequently for four years of democratic rule, Mr. Blaine held on to the public trust. He must be an extra good man and capable now of something very much better than he has. It would have been the proper thing to have made him collector so that he could have done something for Gen. Robinson to repay his kindness.

THERE is some talk that the republicans will not nominate a candidate for State treasurer when they meet in convention next Thursday in Lexington, but this does not prevent the State Central Committee from preparing to make a vigorous canvass. Such speakers as Blackburn, Durham, Breckinridge, McKenzie, Hardin and others will be in the field and we suppose, as is his custom, Gov. McCreary will be in the hottest of the fight. The democracy intends that a full vote shall be polled in August.

The Shelbyville Sentinel says that if Judge Durham will announce himself for Auditor, for which position the Covington Commonwealth is urging him, "it will support him first last and all the time. For Governor he will necessarily have a hard and uncertain fight, but the other plumb is ready to drop into his mouth as soon as opened." The auditor's office pays about double that of governor, but our judge prefers honors to emoluments at his time of life.

The last words of Labee, who was hung at Patterson, N. J., last week, were, "I love Jesus," but as he deserted his wife for a concubine and then murdered her, when she sought to assert her rights, it is very likely that the love wasn't reciprocated. "No murderer shall enter the kingdom of heaven" is Holy Writ and not set aside every time a criminal with a halter around his neck chances to proclaim that he is going straight home to Jesus.

Our friend, W. R. Cress, of the Mt. Vernon Signal, is getting himself in fix to have an indictment slapped against him by Judge Boyd. Speaking of the latter's ruling against the eligibility of a juror for service who forms an opinion on a newspaper report, he says: "The length man who would attempt to set his foot on the newspaper world of Kentucky, should be dealt with like Napoleon of old."

The negro jury acquitted McDowell of the murder of Editor Dawson at Charleston, notwithstanding the proof showed a most diabolical case of assassination and attempt at hiding the body. It is said that the colored population did not like the editor because he always spoke of them as negroes in his paper, and their manifestations of joy at the acquittal were as exultant as they were idiotic.

The president has appointed Fred Douglas Minister to Hayti, with the hope perhaps, that the old darkey may be able to settle the troubles there among the negroes. The salary is $5,000 but with the danger to life that exists where interminable civil wars prevail that is not much inducement to location there.

The democracy of Boyle did a sensible thing Saturday in nominating J. Len Bruce for the legislature. He is the most popular man in the county, capable witnail, and can beat any republican that dare run against him.

The silly mock marriage business has gotten many a couple into trouble, but we had no idea that Editor J. Fletcher Marcum, of the Catlettsburg Democrat, would be caught by it, especially since he had such a lovely little sweetheart, who was apparently willing to perform her part in a real ceremony. But he was, if an Ironton paper is to be credited. The "marriage" occurred at Ashland to a daughter of Gen. Green Clay Smith, and is legal from the fact that the clerk issued the license and a minister tied the knot. The paper says a divorce suit will be "necessary to separate them. The lady is distracted over the affair and the gentleman is said to have a female friend who feels rather sad over it." We have not a doubt of the latter statement and will wager that every one who attended the press association can call the name.

The Commercial is edited by Col. R. M. Kelly, ex-pension agent for Kentucky, who has made a study of the subject. He says: "The republicans of Ohio made a mistake in declaring for a service pension bill. Such a measure would be an injustice to deserving pensioners and to the country. The soldier vote is a good thing to have, but it will neither be gained or held by demagogues."

The man mean enough to steal a cent off a dead nigger's eye has been spoken of as the superlative of meanness and perhaps was only imaginary. But one nearly as mean, gauging the crime by the amount, has been found at Chattanooga. Arthur Blackford is in jail for stealing the two silver dollars that were laid on a dead baby's eyes to keep them closed.

The annual adjustment of postmasters' salaries leaves Stanford, Danville and Williamsburg at the same figures and increases Harrodsburg from $1,500 to $1,600; Lebanon from $1,600 to $1,700; Nicholasville from $1,300 to $1,400; Richmond from $1,600 to $1,700 and Sonseret from from $1,200 to $1,300.

Judge R. J. Breckinridge Nominated.

The Chairman of the County Committee, R. L. Salter, in Boyle, R. H. Tomlinson in Garrard, and George E. Stone, representing Casey county, met with the Chairman of the Democratic District Committee in Stanford yesterday and cast the votes of their respective counties for Hon. R. J. Breckinridge and ordered that he be declared the party's nominee for the State Senate in this, the 18th District, which is hereby done.

T. D. NEWLAND, Ch'n.

NEWS CONDENSED.

—There are 20,000 locomotives in use in the U. S.

—Hiram Chestnut, a highly respected citizen of Pulaski, is dead.

—Martin Hodges, marshal of Uniontown, committed suicide.

—There are five women murderers under sentence of death in the State of New York.

—The public debt, no thanks to Tanner, was decreased $15,000,000 last month.

—Cardinal Gibbons ordained a colored priest last week, making the second ever so ordained.

—The Music Teachers' Association meeting at Louisville proved a flat and dismal failure.

—Carlotta Patti, sister of Adalina and like her, a fine musician, died Friday in Paris.

—Col. Goodloe pays Robinson for re-tiring Blaine by re-appointing R. C. Baldwin stamp deputy.

—An anti-prohibition candidate, independent of all parties, has shied his castor in the ring in Woodford.

—A train on the O. & N. W. went through a trestle near Bataria, O., and 15 people were injured, several fatally.

—H. D. Oleson, living near Clifton, Texas, set fire to his house, and then jumped into the flames and was cremated.

—The belt railroad around Lexington has been let to Mike Dolan & Son, who contract to have it in running condition by Dec. 1.

—The Burton block, one of Chicago's finest edifices, with the stock of 14 or more firms, was damaged to the extent of $300,000.

—A vein of iron ore, nine miles in length, and an average thickness of 17 feet, has been discovered near Birmingham, Ala.

—Walter Hamp, of Lancaster, Pa., followed his faithless wife to Springfield, Ill., where he killed her and committed suicide.

—The railroads have made a half-fare rate to New Orleans on account of the Sullivan-Killrain prize fight. Tickets will be on sale July 4-6.

—Indians threaten to wreck a Northern Pacific train because, as they claim, an Indian was shot from a train by officers in pursuit of them.

—It is estimated that $1,000,000 has been contributed by the people of the world for the relief of the stricken people of the Conemaugh Valley.

—Felex A. Barbee, a Catlettsburg editor on being arrested, for small thefts, got away from the officers and made his escape to drown himself, we hope.

—The suit of Frederick C. Prentiss, of New York, for possession of half of the city of Duluth, was decided in his favor by the Circuit Court at Ashland, Wis.

—Col. A. M. Saxton, for whom Saxton's National Bank at St. Joseph, Mo., was named, is dead. He was for many years a prominent man in Missouri politics.

—Daniel Ramsell, of Indiana, to be marshal of the District of Columbia; and Capt. Meredith, of Chicago, Chief of the Bureau of Engraving and Printing, have been appointed.

—The Secretary of War has directed that offices connected with the department of war be draped in mourning for a period of 30 days, as a mark of respect to Hon. Simon Cameron.

—The Daily Herald, of Frankfort, has suspended publication. It was owned and edited by Clarence Egbert, formerly Governor Knott's private secretary, and died for want of patronage.

—Four women and two men, all disreputable characters, were found dead in a house of ill-fame at Patterson, N. J., having been asphyxiated by the gas which they blew out after a drunken orgy.

—The special grand jury in the Cronin investigation found indictments against Coughlin, O'Sullivan, Woodruff, Burk, Beggs, Cooney and Kunze. Alexander Sullivan's case will go over to the next jury.

—A burglar entered the house of John Webber, at LaCrosse, Wis., and one of his daughters giving the alarm the brute turned on her and plunged a knife into her side leaving exposed the heart, lungs and intestines.

—The State debt of Ohio has been doubled in four years, and the republican party in its platform congratulates the people on its financing. Most everybody would have plenty of money if they refused to pay their debts.

—The Manufacturers' Record publishes a report of the industrial development of the South for the first 6 months of 1889, showing the total number of new enterprises organized to be 2,615, representing $108,933,000 of capital as against 2,023 new enterprises investing $81,508,000 during the first six months of 1888.

—The State Teachers' Association fixed Mt. Sterling for the next place of meeting and elected the following officers: President, J. J. Glenn, Madisonville; vice-president, T. M. Goodnight, Franklin; treasurer, Hiram Roberts, Louisville; secretary, R. H. Carothers, Louisville; railroad secretary, J. T. Gaines, Louisville; state editor, J. O. Hodges, Lexington. Miss Amanda Anderson, of Garrard, was elected editor for the 8th district.

HUSTONVILLE.

—We had a violent war of the elements, or in the elements, Sunday afternoon. Two threatening clouds of portentous proportions came rushing one from the northeast and the other from the southwest, and collided above our quiet village. The shock was grand, the accompaniments of thunder and lightning sonorous and dazzling. The deluge of rain threw the upper Hanging Fork into a frenzy and filled our pale-faced villagers with reminiscences of Johnstown and Father Noah's enforced voyage of an earlier date. There is a growing suspicion among our older citizens that the storm was due to the alleged injustice done by our sprightly young friend, the peripatetic I. J. man. The shade of Alexander is disturbed at the injustice which deprives his memory of the honor of having conquered the world and wanting to whip somebody else. Napoleon is said to be swearing in melifluous French that Waterloo impertinently interfered with his conquest of the world. By the way I remember being struck just after the close of Napoleon's career with the answer made by an old mountaineer to the question of another: "What would have become of us if Bonaparte had come to this country?" The sententious reply was, "He would have run the last man up the Rocky Mountains!"

—We had a violent war of the elements, or in the elements, Sunday afternoon. Two threatening clouds of portentous proportions came rushing one from the northeast and the other from the southwest, and collided above our quiet village. The shock was grand, the accompaniments of thunder and lightning sonorous and dazzling. The deluge of rain threw the upper Hanging Fork into a frenzy and filled our pale-faced villagers with reminiscences of Johnstown and Father Noah's enforced voyage of an earlier date. There is a growing suspicion among our older citizens that the storm was due to the alleged injustice done by our sprightly young friend, the peripatetic I. J. man. The shade of Alexander is disturbed at the injustice which deprives his memory of the honor of having conquered the world and wanting to whip somebody else. Napoleon is said to be swearing in melifluous French that Waterloo impertinently interfered with his conquest of the world. By the way I remember being struck just after the close of Napoleon's career with the answer made by an old mountaineer to the question of another: "What would have become of us if Bonaparte had come to this country?" The sententious reply was, "He would have run the last man up the Rocky Mountains!"

—Rominger & Seaman have been selling their Texas half breeds like hot cakes, having disposed of 50 odd in the last few days. The prices have ranged from $20 to $45 and Miller & Carpenter are the largest single purchasers, having taken 14 head.

—The wheat crop in Kansas and Missouri is reported the best ever harvested in those States. The yield in Ohio, Indiana, Illinois and Michigan is estimated above the average, possibly excepting Indiana. Damage by the green bug was largely overestimated.

—The Cincinnati Commercial learns that the crop outlook in Southern Ohio, West Virginia, Eastern Kentucky and Southern Indiana is excellent. The wheat is particularly good, both as regards quality and quantity and corn is making excellent progress.

—The 123 cattle, or 110 of them, that did not die on the way, which were shipped to Chicago by Joe A. Cohen last week, were sold at $3.70 in that city. He lost $1,000 on the venture. Leathers & Goodnight bought of Joe A. Cohen about 100 lambs at 5 cts. a pound.—Anderson News.

—In the eyes of horsemen, a foal by the dam of the celebrated trotting mare, Maud S., Miss Russell, sired by the great Electroneer, is a gem of the purest ray. Such is a little bay filly, two or three days old, living at Woodburn Stud and valued at many thousand dollars—sharing with a yearling sister the honor of being the bluest blood in the trotting royalty of the world. She is Miss Russell's 17th colt.

—During the last race of the Bourbon Trotting Club, the judges expelled W. R. Brassfield, the well-known horseman, from the turf. He refused to start his mare, Linnie, for the third heat because the judges declined to set back Starter Wilkes, the winner of the second heat, who ran the greater part of the distance and then beat Linnie by a nose only.

The matter came near producing a riot, the judges, which included Mr. W. J. Lyle, being soundly hissed and berated.

—The Kansas chin-chugs have the cholera and countless millions are departing this life, to the delight of the farmers.

—R. E. Thompson bought of D. P. Beurthum 85 hogs at 3½; also a 5-year-old filly of E. J. Brown for $215.—Mt. Vernon Signal.

—Bryant & Scoggan are about to dissolve and in the event they do Proctor Knott will be sold—for a buggy horse, we presume.

—At the annual sale of surplus Southdown lambs at Central Park, New York, 41 head brought $500, the highest price, $24.50, being realized for ram lamb.

—Fifty-three planters were interviewed last week and we find a reduction of 36 per cent. in the acreage of tobacco set this year as compared with 1888.—Owen News.

—Robt. McDade, a Henry county youth of 18, sold his first crop of tobacco, 11 bushels, realizing $1,224, or something over $13 per hundred.

—Alex Williams, colored, who murdered his wife at Owensboro Saturday, committed suicide at Evansville when an attempt was made to arrest him.

—Daniel Ramsell, of Indiana, to be marshal of the District of Columbia; and Capt. Meredith, of Chicago, Chief of the Bureau of Engraving and Printing, have been appointed.

—The Secretary of War has directed that offices connected with the department of war be draped in mourning for a period of 30 days, as a mark of respect to Hon. Simon Cameron.

—The Daily Herald, of Frankfort, has suspended publication. It was owned and edited by Clarence Egbert, formerly Governor Knott's private secretary, and died for want of patronage.

—Four women and two men, all disreputable characters, were found dead in a house of ill-fame at Patterson, N. J., having been asphyxiated by the gas which they blew out after a drunken orgy.

—The special grand jury in the Cronin investigation found indictments against Coughlin, O'Sullivan, Woodruff, Burk, Beggs, Cooney and Kunze. Alexander Sullivan's case will go over to the next jury.

—A burglar entered the house of John Webber, at LaCrosse, Wis., and one of his daughters giving the alarm the brute turned on her and plunged a knife into her side leaving exposed the heart, lungs and intestines.

—The man mean enough to steal a cent off a dead nigger's eye has been spoken of as the superlative of meanness and perhaps was only imaginary. But one nearly as mean, gauging the crime by the amount, has been found at Chattanooga. Arthur Blackford is in jail for stealing the two silver dollars that were laid on a dead baby's eyes to keep them closed.

—The man mean enough to steal a cent off a dead nigger's eye has been spoken of as the superlative of meanness and perhaps was only imaginary. But one nearly as mean, gauging the crime by the amount, has been found at Chattanooga. Arthur Blackford is in jail for stealing the two silver dollars that were laid on a dead baby's eyes to keep them closed.

—The man mean enough to steal a cent off a dead nigger's eye has been spoken of as the superlative of meanness and perhaps was only imaginary. But one nearly as mean, gauging the crime by the amount, has been found at Chattanooga. Arthur Blackford is in jail for stealing the two silver dollars that were laid on a dead baby's eyes to keep them closed.

—The man mean enough to steal a cent off a dead nigger's eye has been spoken of as the superlative of meanness and perhaps was only imaginary. But one nearly as mean, gauging the crime by the amount, has been found at Chattanooga. Arthur Blackford is in jail for stealing the two silver dollars that were laid on a dead baby's eyes to keep them closed.

—The man mean enough to steal a cent off a dead nigger's eye has been spoken of as the superlative of meanness and perhaps was only imaginary. But one nearly as mean, gauging the crime by the amount, has been found at Chattanooga. Arthur Blackford is in jail for stealing the two silver dollars that were laid on a dead baby's eyes to keep them closed.

—The man mean enough to steal a cent off a dead nigger's eye has been spoken of as the superlative of meanness and perhaps was only imaginary. But one nearly as mean, gauging the crime by the amount, has been found at Chattanooga. Arthur Blackford is in jail for stealing the two silver dollars that were laid on a dead baby's eyes to keep them closed.

—The man mean enough to steal a cent off a dead nigger's eye has been spoken of as the superlative of meanness and perhaps was only imaginary. But one nearly as mean, gauging the crime by the amount, has been found at Chattanooga. Arthur Blackford is in jail for stealing the two silver dollars that were laid on a dead baby's eyes to keep them closed.

—The man mean enough to steal a cent off a dead nigger's eye has been spoken of as the superlative of meanness and perhaps was only imaginary. But one nearly as mean, gauging the crime by the amount, has been found at Chattanooga. Arthur Blackford is in jail for stealing the two silver dollars that were laid on a dead baby's eyes to keep them closed.

—The man mean enough

Semi-Weekly Interior Journal

STANFORD, KY., JULY 2, 1880

E. C. WALTON, Bus. Manager

MEANS BUSINESS.

COME and settle your account. A. R. Penny.

WATCHES and jewelry repaired and warranted. A. R. Penny.

The best place to buy drugs, patent medicines and toilet articles is at A. R. Penny's.

BUY your school books, ink, tablets, paper, pencils and school supplies of all kinds from A. R. Penny.

PERSONAL POINTS.

DR. R. C. MORGAN, of Lebanon, is here.

EDITOR M. D. HUGHES was in town yesterday.

MR. AND MRS. J. P. DAVIS are visiting in Monticello.

MR. J. MATT MARTIN is very ill with bladder trouble.

Mrs. R. G. HAIL, of Somerset, is with Mrs. George D. Wearen.

MISS JULIA BRADLEY, of Harrodsburg, is visiting relatives at Hustonville.

MR. GEORGE GIVENS, of Pittsburg, has been visiting relatives in the county.

MRS. J. C. HAYS, who has been on a visit to relatives in Garrard, has returned home.

MR. W. A. ALCOON, of Pryor's Point, Miss., is visiting his relative, Mr. J. W. Alcoo.

BEVERLY ROUT, who has spent the last three years in Missouri, is visiting his parents.

MRS. S. W. GIVENS and A. K. Denney are spending a week at Dripping Springs.

MR. AND MRS. MATT WOODSON left yesterday for a couple of weeks visit to relatives at Woodsonville.

MR. JAMES T. SHACKELFORD and wife, of Richmond, have been visiting their uncle, Col. Thomas W. Miller.

MRS. G. C. KELLER, Sr., and Henry Keller, of Harrodsburg, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Keller, Jr.

MRS. A. A. McKinNEY is still in a critical condition though somewhat better. Mrs. T. R. Walton is much improved.

MANAGER F. J. CAMPBELL passed up to Rock Castle Springs Saturday with 15 persons who go to spend the season with him.

MR. L. D. HOLLINGSWORTH and bride, who was Miss Lizzie Huffman, passed through to Evansville, Ind., yesterday, where they will locate.

PROF. J. B. WALTON, of Centre College, was here yesterday, in the interest of that institution, for which he will travel during the summer months.

MR. J. P. CHANDLER has been appointed agent of the Middleborough Town Company and general auctioneer for the sale to occur there Oct. 15-19.

MISS LENA R. WILLIAMS, of Hustonville, accompanied Mr. Bishop's remains to Millersburg, where the burial took place Thursday.—Paris News.

DR. J. G. CARPENTER writes that he has determined to take a special course on the diseases of the eye and surgical diseases of women in New York City.

MISS EDDIE CAMPBELL, of Rowland, a beautiful and accomplished young lady, is visiting the family of Mr. O'Mara, the popular yard engineer.—Jellico News.

MRS. WALLACE EMBRY, Mrs. Talton Embry, Mrs. Henry Embry, of Louisville, and Miss Ada Mattingly, of Cleveland, O., are visiting Mrs. T. J. Foster.

CAPT. J. H. HUTCHINSON, of the C. S., was to see his mother last week. He has been with his road six years and has never had a wreck, something not many of its conductors can say.

THE Harrodsburg Democrat is the boss paper for "personalities." It had two and a half columns last issue and in them we notice that Miss Mary Shelby, of this country, is visiting Mrs. Eb. Magoffin.

DR. L. H. BLANTON, chancellor of Central University, was here last week in the interest of that institution, which tells us will open in September with the largest number of pupils in its history.

MISSSES MARIE AND GEORGIA BARNES, the charming daughters of Rev. George O. Barnes, of Sanibel Island, Fla., are with Miss Lucy Ashmore for a two weeks' stay.—Versailles Letter in C. J.

DAN GARRARD is spoken of to succeed Commonwealth Attorney Marrs, who is about to resign his charge in the 19th district. The place needs a man of grit and backbone and Dan fills the bill exactly.

MISSSES ANGIE AND FLORA BALLOU have returned from the West Point Virginia Seminary, the former bringing with her a diploma, which was won with the highest honors of her class—that of being its valedictorian.

THE Nicholasville Journal pays Julius Von Grunigen, of this county, who has been clerking there, but has been forced to quit on account of ill-health, a very high compliment on his business capacity and gentlemanly bearing.

MISS NANNETTE GASTINEAU, the well-known teacher, has been complimented by an election to a position in one of the graded high schools at Lexington, where she will add still further to her reputation as a capable and careful instructor.

CITY AND VICINITY.

MILK SHAKER Zimmer's.

THE new postage stamps will be metallic red, or carmine, instead of green as at present.

NEW air-tight fruit jars at S. S. Myers.

ICE CREAM at all hours at Zimmer's.

FRUIT JARS and extra tops for sale. A. C. Martin, Maywood.

JIM CARPENTER was fined $5 for assaulting John J. Bright.

A No. 1 second-hand Walter A. Wood binder for sale cheap. I. M. Bruce.

SEVERAL of the young people attended an impromptu hop at Hustonville last night.

THE younger class of young ladies have organized a cooking club and will meet with Miss Annie Hale to-night.

THE TAX books for 1880 are now ready. Everybody will please come forward and pay his taxes at once. T. D. Newland, Sheriff.

THE first of July is past and I insist that those indebted to me will come forward and settle their accounts. I need the money and must have it. H. C. Riley.

MISS EFFIE WARREN will open the public school at district No. 2, July 15th. Miss Effie has the reputation of being a good teacher and we are sure she will give satisfaction.

THE ladies of Bright's school house will give a moonlight picnic on Thursday evening, July 11, for the benefit of the Sunday-school. Admission to all 25 cts.; everybody invited.

PROF. S. J. FULLAM has accepted the charge of the Stanford Male and Female Seminary, which was tendered him, and earnestly desires the patrons to let him know at once the number of pupils he will have.

IN the county court yesterday the will of R. C. Bywaters was admitted to probate and John A. Hammond was appointed deputy county clerk. This, with some road orders was the extent of the business.

THE public school at Mt. Xenia has been given to Miss Bettie W. Tompkins, of Harrodsburg, and will open the first Monday in August. This will make the 6th school that Miss Tompkins has taught in this county.

THE democracy, that is a faithful few of them, met here Saturday and instructed T. D. Newland, Chairman of the County Committee, to cast the vote of the county for Hon. R. J. Breckinridge for democratic nominee for Senator in this, the 18th district.

VISITORS will be glad to know that popular Tom Newman will be at Crab Orchard Springs again this season. He will be in charge of the office. Miss Annie McLaughlin will direct the management of the hotel, while Supt. J. C. King will attend to everybody and everything as usual.

THE Rockcastle jury decided that it was right and proper for a man to shoot and kill a boy, simply because he hallooed for Jeff Davis. At least it acquitted the fellow Sigman, who murdered young Higginbotham for that offense. The murder was a very atrocious one, and but for the 28 years lapse of time since its committal, Commonwealth's Attorney Herndon says there could hardly have been an acquittal.

THE Queen and Crescent Route will sell tickets to High Bridge Camp Meeting and return on July 11 continuing sale until 21st at all ticket offices between Chattanooga and Cincinnati at special low rates. Special trains will be run daily except Sunday from Georgetown. Also on Sundays, July 14 and 21, from Cincinnati and Somerset. Revs. Sam Jones, Sam Small and other prominent divines will be present.

JAILER BYRNE, of Knox, was down Friday after John T. Hinkle, who was convicted in the circuit court there and sentenced to the penitentiary five years, and who has been in jail here since, pending an appeal. A new trial was granted him and Judge Boyd having fixed his bail at $5,000 he was taken back to Barbourville to give it if he can. He has been in jail here some time and although he never gave the jailer any special trouble, he was regarded as a very slick one and watched with usual care.

TOWN VS. COUNTRY CUSTOMS.—A few nights ago a young farmer of some 18 summers went to see his devoted, whose father is also a tiller of the soil. The young man had called on several of the town girls and had learned that the proper time to make his calls was not just as soon as the sun was set, as he had been used to doing, but an hour or so later. Profiting by experience, he knocked at his country girl's door at 8:30 prompt, and instead of being welcomed by her or her father, a couple of bulldogs did that part by trying their best to bite him. The young man, scared out of his wits, climbed a tree near by and to this tree he doubtless attributes his present existence. The trouble, however, was not over, for the farmer and his daughter were awakened by the noise and thinking a thief was near, rushed out with gun and broom in hand and would have shot the courting man to pieces had he not begged for mercy from both the man with the gun and the dogs. The dogs driven away, the ill-fated young farmer told his mission, but on being informed that it was entirely too late for company he left, a sadder but a wiser youth.

FARMERS, Traders, Horsemen and Stockmen of Marion, Boyle, Lincoln, Garrard and Washington will find all the news relating to matters of interest to them in the leading paper of Central Kentucky, issued every Tuesday and Friday of each week, $2 per year. Send 25 cents and try it for three months. Address B. G. Boyce, Business Manager, Danville, Ky.

THE NAPIER HOUSE, LIBERTY, KY.

F. W. WARRINNER, PROP'R.

I have leased the above Hotel and intend running it in first-class style in every particular.

Special attention to commercial men.

IF sheol is any hotter than yesterday was, good Lord deliver us.

JUDGE DURHAM will speak at Williamsburg next Saturday at 2 o'clock.

THE L. & N., R. C. and C. S., will sell cheap excursion rates for the 4th of July, 20.

It is stated that Gov. Buckner will order the State Guard into camp at Crab Orchard, July 20.

MISS PEARL PHILLIPS will commence a public school at White Oak School-House on Monday next.

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL will go to Somerset Wednesday night to play the Wadde Bros.' club there two games on the 4th.

THE democrats of Casey nominated Ex-sheriff George W. Sweeney for the legislature Saturday—a capital nomination.

TWINE for binders and a number of brand new buggies for sale cheap. Call early and take first choice of the buggies. I. M. Bruce.

A DANCE will be given at the Opera House to-night, 2d, in honor of Miss Emma Saufey, to which the young people generally are invited.

A HINT to the wise is sufficient. Read this notice and go straightforward to Chadwick & Arment, Crab Orchard, and pay your account.

HON. F. F. BORETT was unable to be here yesterday to deliver his speech on the ineligibility of preachers to the legislature, but he sent it for publication.

THE republicans haven't nominated a candidate for the legislature yet and will probably do so publicly, though G. W. Gentry and others are spoken of as candidates.

HENRY CLAY, the negro who broke into George Butcher's barber shop and took what he could find, was arrested and brought here yesterday by Marshal Waggoner, of Harrodsburg.

W. G. SALA, master of trains, says it was a mistake about there being a general order permitting passengers to ride on freight trains. No such order has been made and no one can ride on those freights that do not ordinarily carry passengers, except by special permit.

THE Lincoln National Bank shows gross earnings of $15,491.66, a surplus of $2,000, and undivided profits for the first six months of its existence of $9,058.03, but the directors decided that it was best not to declare a dividend this time. The First National, of this place, declared 3 per cent. dividend, after carrying $1,000 to surplus, reducing premiums $500 and paying taxes and all other expenses. The Hustonville National earned $4,277.96, paid a dividend of 3 per cent. and all expenses and carried $1,015.79 to undivided profits.

THE SPEAKING.—There is no use talking about the Court-House being unsafe after yesterday's test. Every nook, aisle, window sill and all were crowded, people standing up for hours to hear the debate. Judge R. J. Breckinridge was the first speaker, but he contented himself with simply announcing his acceptance of the democratic nomination for Senator and promising to be heard from later. The democratic party is a party of principles and he would endeavor during the canvass to maintain them with honor to himself and credit to that party.

FOR some reason Bro. Montgomery was not on hand when his time came to lead off and a delay of 15 or 20 minutes was occasioned. He finally appeared and from all we heard and learned devoted more of his time to the INTERIOR JOURNAL than to his opponent. His effort otherwise was the stereotyped temperance speech, with which all are so familiar as need no repetition here.

When Mr. Warren arose to speak, a prolonged applause greeted him, but having got out of the crush, we were unable to force our way back and so missed the speech. Those who heard him, however, tell us that he acquitted himself nobly and gained many recruits to his army from those who had gone off on hearsay of his position. He both strengthened himself and his cause and judging from the repeated cheers he scored many a good point. The mercury was fully 150 in the room and how speakers and people stood it we are at a loss to know.

The rejoinder and the sur-rejoinder were amusing and witty and both speakers got their full quota of applause.

CHURCH AFFAIRS.

—Prayer meeting at Mt. Xenia next Sunday evening at 4 o'clock.

—The Baptist church at Cave City was struck by lightning and entirely destroyed.

—Rev. G. C. Overstreet, formerly a Methodist, but now a Presbyterian minister, has announced his candidacy for Superintendent of public instruction.

—Elder A. P. Cobb, of Decatur, Ill., a noted evangelist, has consented to assist Rev. J. Bell Gibson in a protracted meeting at the Christian church in October.

—Dr. J. B. Cottrell, the well-known Methodist preacher, at present stationed at Franklin, lost his wife last week. She had been in poor health for a long time and was in Florida for its benefit when she died.

—Rev. R. C. Medaris, of Williamsburg, J. N. Bowling, of Middleburg and J. R. Hicks, of Barbourville, organized a Baptist church at this place last Sunday with 24 charter members.—Pineville Messenger.

Thomas Ewing Sherman, oldest son of Gen. Sherman, will become a Jesuit priest next week in Philadelphia.

—Elder H. J. Clark will preach at Preachersville church on the 2d Saturday in July; also the following Sunday at 11 o'clock, on account of the illness of Eld. A. C. Newland, who is unable yet to fill his appointment there.

—Bro. Joe Hopper was with relatives here a few days ago and told us that he and Rev. Evans organized on the 2d at Stanton, Powell county, a Presbyterian church with 45 members, three ruling elders and three deacons, and raised $500 toward building a house of worship. Stanton promises to be one of the coming towns of that country.

—Speaking of Mr. Barnes' lectures, which he now delivers free, the Anderson News says: After each lecture an honest, earnest and strong appeal for money is made and the contributions for the two nights here were quite liberal, amounting to about $125, which is more than the lecture brought in any town formerly visited where an admission fee was charged.

—Judge Moren, of London, and John Pitman, of Pittsburg, were here Saturday.

—Wesley Mink, who was run over by a train at Livingston last week, was unmarred.

—One and a half dozen was the number of visiting attorneys here during court last week.

—A hog at this place is the happy possessor of six well developed hoods on each of its front legs.

—Miss Laura Clay, of Lexington, State president of the Woman's Rights Association, will deliver a lecture at the church on the evening of Friday, 5th, on "The Duties of Women to Society."

—The jury in the Sigmund trial held out two days after taking the case and returned a verdict of acquittal Saturday morning. We understand nine were for acquittal and three for a penalty of three years.

—The Mink family seem to be rather unfortunate. One was killed at Livingston Thursday, one killed at Bailey's Switch, Knox county, Saturday, and one got a leg broken in jumping from a K. C. train Saturday.

—James Bailey, who killed A. W. Mink at Bailey's Switch, Knox county, Saturday, was himself killed Sunday evening within 100 yards of where Mink lost his life. Bailey was riding along with James Smith, who had been guarding him since his surrender. The guard had loaned Bailey his pistol; Bailey had fired it a number of times; in doing so he would flourish the pistol around and the guard says he don't know whether Bailey was killed from ambush or shot himself.

—Alex W. Mink was shot and instantly killed by James Bailey at Bailey's Switch, between Barbourville and Lovell's early Saturday morning. Mink, while under the influence of liquor, made an attack on Bailey Friday evening, but was disarmed before any damage was done. Saturday morning Mink went to Bailey's house and commenced the trouble by drawing his revolver. Bailey took up a double-barrel shot-gun and fired two shots, killing his head and body full of shot, killing him instantly. Bailey went to Barbourville and surrendered to the authorities. Mink's remains were brought to his father's, Albert Mink's, on Skaggs Creek, in this county.

—LIBERTY.—Mrs. H. R. Cannitz, of Hustonville, and Mrs. Culbertson, of Covington, are visiting their mother, Mrs. Huffman, who has been very ill, but is improving. Mr. N. J. Sweeney, of Walesburg, Ind., and Mrs

Semi-Weekly Interior Journal

Published Every Tuesday and Friday

—AT—

$2 PER YEAR IN ADVANCE

When not so paid $2.50 will be charged.

K. C. LOCAL TIME CARD.

Train leaves Rowland at 7:00 a. m., returning at 4:30 p. m.

L. & N. LOCAL TIME CARD.

Mail train going North..... 12:31 p.m.
Express train " South..... 1:31 p.m.
" " North..... 3:27 a.m.
Local Freight North..... 6:30 a.m.
South..... 5:35 p.m.
The latter trains also carry passengers.
The above is calculated on standard time. Solar time is about 10 minutes faster.

Long-Standing

Blood Diseases are cured by the persevering use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

This medicine is an Alterative, and causes a radical change in the system. The process, in some cases, may not be quite so rapid as in others; but, with persistence, the result is certain. Read these testimonials:

"For two years I suffered from a severe pain in my right side, and had other troubles caused by a torpid liver and dyspepsia. After giving several medicines a fair trial without a cure, I began to take Ayer's Sarsaparilla. I was greatly benefited by the first bottle, and after taking five bottles I was completely cured." — John W. Benson, 70 Lawrence st., Lowell, Mass.

Last May a large carbuncle broke out on my arm. The usual remedies had no effect and I was confined to my bed for eight weeks. A friend induced me to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Less than three bottles healed the sore. In all my experience with medicine, I never saw more Wonderful Results.

Another marked effect of the use of this medicine was the strengthening of my sight." — Mrs. Carrie Adams, Holly Springs, Texas.

"I had a dry scaly humor for years, and suffered terribly; and, as my brother and sister were similarly afflicted, I presume the malady is hereditary. Last winter Dr. Tyson, (of Fernside, Fla.) recommended me to take Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and continue it for a year. For five months I took it daily. I have not had a blemish upon my body for the last three months." — T. E. Wiley, 146 Chambers st., New York City.

"Last fall and winter I was troubled with a dull, heavy pain in my side. I did not notice it much at first, but it gradually grew worse until it became almost unbearable. During the latter part of this time, disorders of the stomach and liver increased my troubles. I began taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and, after faithfully continuing the use of this medicine for some months, the pain disappeared and I was completely cured." — Mrs. Augusta A. Furbush, Haverhill, Mass.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla,

PREPARED BY
Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.
Price $1; six bottles, $5. Worth $5 a bottle.

THE MYERS HOUSE

E. H. BURNSIDE, Proprietor

No Hotel in Kentucky has a better reputation, and its proprietor is set apart, that shall be maintained.

He has recently added to its appointments

Pool and Billiard Parlors

—Also—

A First-Class Livery Stable

To accommodate the demands of his increased transient patronage, best Turnouts furnished Commercial Travelers and others.

GANTER'S CHICKEN S Cholera Cure!

Thousands of dollars worth of chickens die every year from Cholera. It is more fatal to chickens than all other diseases combined. But the discovery of a remedy that positively cures it has been made, and to be convinced of its efficacy only requires a trial. A 50-cent bottle is enough for one hundred chickens. It is guaranteed. If, after using two-thirds of a bottle, the buyer is not thoroughly satisfied with it as a cure for Chicken Cholera, return it to the undersigned and your money will be refunded.

For sale McRoberts & Stagg, Stanford.

COMPLEXION CREAM
THIS preparation, without injury, removes Freckles, Black-Heads, Sunburn and Tan. A few applications will render the most stubbornly red skin soft, smooth and white. Viola Cream is not a paint or powder to cover defects, but a remedy to cure. It is superior to all other preparations, and is guaranteed to give satisfaction. At drug-gists or mailed for 50 cents. Prepared by G. C. BITTNER & CO., TOLEDO, OHIO.

For Sale at McRoberts & Stagg's, Stanford, Ky.

Prohibition East and West.

The regulation of the liquor traffic being much easier in sparsely settled regions than in the great cities and the crowded districts contiguous thereto, it is not unnatural that the more ardent friends of temperance should, in those sparsely settled regions, imagine that they can suppress that traffic altogether. Local option is not only a favorite, but often an effective recourse, in a neighborhood, or a county where public sentiment is united. Hence, it is applied, and safely applied, for a local and police purpose even in country villages and towns, and it so happens that in States like Maine, Iowa and Kansas, subject to rural influences, prohibition has come about.

It is different, however, in the great centers of population. Even in the larger cities and towns in Maine, Kansas and Iowa prohibition does not prohibit. In the meantime, it involves a perpetual assault upon personal liberty and entails abuses greater even than those appertaining to drunkenness. The question in all its bearings was never so thoroughly and so ably discussed as in Massachusetts, with the result of the complete defeat and overthrow of prohibition. So, in a lesser degree, was it in Rhode Island and Pennsylvania, where tens of thousands of good people, who are as sincerely enlisted on the side of temperance and morality as the prohibitionists, voted against prohibition as no cure for the evils admitted by all to flow from the excessive use of alcohol.

In view of these developments, we may reasonably expect prohibition to be weaker in the next presidential battle than in the two last presidential battles. Indeed, the whole temperance question may take a new shape and turn on new lines of discussion and combat. In that event it becomes an important question whether the temperance party will lose or gain by its change of base.

The vote against prohibition in Texas and Tennessee gave it a black eye in the South, where it cannot now hope to make much effective headway. It is killed in the East. It is checked, if not killed, in the West. It may go to pieces altogether. If so, what will become of its fragments, and which party will profit by its destruction? Obviously the republican party; and, looking to the contingency, it will be well for democrats to consider how we shall counteract this increased republican vote when the time comes to meet it.—Courier-Journal.

The use of the French terms R. S. V. P., en ville, nee and others, are an affectionation which the society usage of a dozen years ago made justifiable, but detached French terms and distinctly French endings in the English language are now being snubbed out of existence. The "mms" at the end of a number of words have given place to the single "m" and it is longer (and indeed never was) good taste to use French expressions unless they are so distinctly idiomatic that the meaning cannot be expressed in English.

It is infinitely more sensible to put "please answer" in the corner of a card of invitation than R. S. V. P.—Repondez s'il vous plaît—and it is absolutely an exhibition of weakness to write en ville on the back of an envelope addressed to a friend. These things are some of the little shams which society has foolishly tolerated.—Harridburg Democrat.

Show THIS TO YOUR HUSBANDS.—We copy this little sermon chock full of good suggestions:

Text: "Husbands love your wives." 1. Never find fault with her before others.

2. Per contra, remember the counsel of the Good Book: "Her husband shall praise her in the gates," that is, before folks.

3. Bear all the burdens for her, even then she'll bear more than you in spite of you.

4. If you want her to submit to your judgment, never ask her to submit to your selfishness.

5. A woman's life is made up of little things. Make her life happy by little courtesies.

6. Love is wife's wages. Don't scrimp in your pay.—Herald of Health.

"Little boy, do you understand what is meant by energy and enterprise?" "No, sir, I don't think I do." "Well, I will tell you. One of the richest men came here without a shirt to his back, and now he has got millions." "Millions! How many does he put on at a time?"

A correspondent asks what we mean by the term "anagnosy," which he can find in no dictionary. We reply that anagnosy means a sort of triangular equilibrium of the intellectual forces, seldom attainable by the uninitiated in the verbosity of philosophical disquisition.—Jesamine Journal.

"Why need it be? we say, and sigh When loving mothers fade and die,
And leave the little ones whose feet They hoped to guide in pathways sweet."

It need not be in many cases. All about us women are dying daily whose lives might have been saved. It seems to be a wide-spread opinion that when a woman is slowly fading away with the diseases which grow out of female weakness and irregularities that there is no help for her. She is doomed to death. But this is not true. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is constantly restoring women afflicted with diseases of this class to health and happiness. It is the only medicine for their ailments, sold by druggists, under positive guarantee from the manufacturers of its giving satisfaction in every case, or money paid for it will be refunded.

Dr. Pierce's Pellets, the original and only genuine Little Liver Pill; 25¢ a vial; one dose.

Simon Cameron was born in Lancaster, Pa. March 8, 1790. Left an orphan, he received but a moderate school education, which he improved upon in the printer's trade, which he followed until 1820, when he became editor of a newspaper in Doylestown, and of another two years later in Harrisburg. He was industrious and thrifty and at length became a capitalist and a banker and in the early days of railroad construction became identified with that interest. He was elected to the U. S. Senate in 1845, and was known as a democrat, but became a member of the republican party as soon as it was founded and was elected by it to the Senate in 1856. Defeated as a candidate for the presidential nomination in 1860, Mr. Lincoln appointed him Secretary of War, which office he filled with great ability until he resigned early in 1862, and went as minister to Russia, where he did much to secure the friendship of that great nation for the Union during the civil war. He resigned as minister to Russia in the autumn of 1862 and sought retirement until 1866, when he was again elected to the Senate. At the close of his term he was re-elected, but in 1873 retired in favor of his son, James Donald Cameron. His death removes the oldest American statesman of prominence, a lone, conspicuous representative of leading American politics nearly half a century ago.

A monastery has been born to Mrs. Jones of Frankfort, Ind., which consists of a single, continuous body on each end of which is a well formed head. It is provided with four arms and four legs which are also well formed and about the normal size and shape. The arms are located at the proper place, and on natural shoulders, one pair at each end of the long body, but the lower limbs protrude outward from each side at the middle of the elongated being. The two heads face the same way and the legs are so attached as to extend at right angles from the middle of the sides of the body. There is only one umbilicus, that being on the anterior surface and middle of the body, showing that the entire form has been nourished through one and the same cord during the entire period of embryonic life. The sex of the curiously constructed being is female. The entire length of the body from head to head is about two feet, and the weight of the creature is about 12 pounds, figures which show ample size and weight for two healthy children. Up to the present writing the baby or babes is or are enjoying good health, and the mother is doing very well.

A regiment of Texas cavalry was halted during the war in front of a hotel at Rome, Ga., and the men were sitting in all kinds of easy positions on their Texass ponies. When the negro waiter came to announce dinner with the gong, seeing a good opportunity for fun, rightly thinking that neither men or ponies had ever heard a Chinese gong, he gave it several thundering bangs, when, with one bound the ponies scampered, throwing most of them on the ground. So great was their anger when the noise was explained that the negro had to hide to prevent their killing him.

Mr. Cobb, the prohibition candidate for State treasurer, says: "I believe no great progress will be made in uprooting the liquor business until the internal revenue tax is abolished, for so long as we are working in opposition to the United States government our progress will be necessarily slow."

A sharp fakir is making a good income by advertising a sure method of killing all insects. When you send him 50cts, you will receive a printed card on which are these words: "Get your insects to smoke cigarettes and they will die within an hour. So long."

No man can go in bad company without suffering for it. The homely old proverb has it very tersely, "A man can not bite the bottom out of a frying pan without smutting his nose."—Nicholsville Journal.

Bucklin's Arnica Salve.

The best salve in the world for cuts, bruises, sores, ulcers, salt rheum, fever worts, tetter, chapped hands, chilblains, corns and all skin eruptions and positively cures piles, or no pay required. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction, or money refunded. Price 25¢ per box. For sale by A. R. Penny, Stanford, Ky.

A Woman's Discovery.

"Another wonderful discovery has been made and that too by a lady in this county. Disease fastened its clutches upon her and for seven years she withheld its severest tests, but her vital organs were undermined and death seemed imminent. For three months she coughed incessantly and could not sleep. She bought of us a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption and was so much relieved on taking the first dose that she slept all night, and with one bottle she has been miraculously cured. Her name is Mrs. Luther Lutz." Thus wrote W. C. Hamrick & Co., of Shelby, N. C. Get a free trial bottle at A. R. Penny's drug store.

Eupsey.

This is what you ought to have, in fact, you must have it to fully enjoy life. Thousands upon thousands of dollars are spent annually by our people in the hope that they may attain this boon. And yet it may be had by all. We guarantee that Electric Bitters, if used according to directions and the use of water will cure you. Get Dr. Pierce's Pills and the Demon Dyspepsia and Insanity instead of Eupsey. We commend Electric Bitters for Dyspepsia and all diseases of Liver, Stomach and Kidneys. Sold at 25¢ and $1 per bottle by A. R. Penny's druggist.

Why Is It?

That people longer along always complain about that continual tired feeling. One bottle of Begg's Blood Purifier and Blood Maker will entirely remove this feeling, give them a good appetite and regulate digestion. A. R. Penny, Druggist.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure

This powder never varies. A marvel of purity, strength and wholesomeness. More economical than the ordinary kinds, and can not be sold at less than 25¢ per pound. It will keep well, and is good for all purposes. ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., 10 Wall street, New York.

Shingles.

I have on hand Men's, Women's Misses' and Children's Shoes, made by Alter, Forwood & Co., and Mundie, which I will sell at the very lowest prices. I have a large stock of shoes which must be sold. My stock is complete and those who want bargains can get them by calling. I mean business.

W. C. BAILEY, Turnersville.

W. B. PENNY DENTIST.

Office on Lancaster street, opposite court-house Stanford, Ky.

Rails, Shingles and Shoes For Sale.

Ten Thousand Flat Rails and 10,000 Poplar

Shingles.

I have on hand Men's, Women's Misses' and Children's Shoes, made by Alter, Forwood & Co., and Mundie, which I will sell at the very lowest prices. I have a large stock of shoes which must be sold. My stock is complete and those who want bargains can get them by calling. I mean business.

W. C. BAILEY, Turnersville.

JACKSON HOUSE.

LONDON, KENTUCKY.

CAPT. FRANK B. RILEY, PROPRIETOR

Thoroughly Renovated and Refreshed. First-class Fare and Reasonable Prices. Day and night Trains are met by Polite Porters or this Popular House.

207-ff.

Established 1825.

FOR INSURANCE

On Dwellings, Household Furniture, Stores, Merchandise, &c., apply to the old

Pennsylvania Fire Insurance Co.

Lightning clauses attached and damages paid whether fire ensues or not.

17 GEO. H. BRUCE, Agent.

HALE'S WELL.

Season Opens June 1, '89.

Board from June 1 to July 1, per week..... $3.00

Cottage Board from June 1 to July 1, per week 3.50

Board per week after July 1..... 6.00

Cottage Rent per week after July 1..... 5.50

Single Meal..... 50

Horses well cared for, per week..... 1.00

Everybody is cordially invited to visit us early in the season and get advantage of the reduced rates. Respectfully, A. L. SPOONAMORE, 26-ff, P. O. Address, Stanford, Ky.

STOLEN !

On Sunday night, December 30th, in the town of Stanford, Ky., a BLACK HORSE, about 15 hands high, 5 years old, both hind feet white, small star in the forehead and snap on nose. He carries his tail high and very heavy a little at a time. He is harnessed to a side-bar buggy, comparative new, with blue cloth linings. Besides the reward of $50, I will give $25 for the recovery of the horse, buggy and thief. JAS. C. REID, Stanford, Ky.

J. H. HILTON